There are many services and agencies who provide safety, shelter, support, legal advocacy, and information to victims of domestic violence and their children to help them transition out of their violent situations into safe homes.

If you are in an emergency situation, call 911 or a crisis line at the agency of your choice.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Domestic violence programs are different at each shelter or agency. Services which may be provided include:

- Shelters/Safe Homes
- Shelter Referral
- Counseling Services
- Counseling Referral Services
- Services for Women and Children
- Transitional Housing
- Legal Advocacy/Services
- Advocacy/Case Management

Additional services may be available depending on the agency you contact.

ELIGIBILITY INFORMATION

Anyone who is in a domestic violence situation, or is concerned about a friend or family member can contact these agencies for advice and services.
